

HOUSING JUSTICE

at the URBAN INSTITUTE

WHAT is housing justice?

Ensuring everyone has affordable housing that promotes health, well-being, and upward mobility by confronting historical and ongoing harms and disparities caused by structural racism and other systems of oppression.

OUR PRINCIPLES OF HOUSING JUSTICE:

Advancing Housing Justice: An Urban Institute Summit

#LiveAtUrban

Housing insecurity is rising as the US faces a severe housing shortage, and as wages haven't kept up with rising costs of living.

CONVENE & ENGAGE

Seek and prioritize solutions shaped by people with lived experience and communities most affected by these challenges.

Create space for different groups to listen, learn, and discuss solutions.

Black, Indigenous, and Latinx people are more likely to experience housing insecurity and homelessness because of past and present discriminatory policies and practices in housing, education, employment, and the criminal legal system.

Solutions need to address the historical, systemic, and intersecting factors that have led to housing insecurity.

To remedy these inequities, advocates, policymakers, and researchers are calling for a structural overhaul of the country's housing system to ensure everyone can live in a safe, affordable home.

PRIVATE PROPERTY
KEEP OUT

PRIMACY OF LIVED EXPERIENCE

ANTI-RACISM & RACIAL EQUITY

CHOICE & AGENCY

HOUSING AS A HUMAN RIGHT

SOCIAL & ECONOMIC EQUITY & JUSTICE

COMMUNITY & WELL-BEING

SELF-DETERMINATION & REPARATIONS

How can we help advance housing justice?

Collect and catalog research and resources related to housing justice.

DATA ANALYSIS

DEVELOP TOOLS FOR CHANGE

Give policymakers and community stakeholders the evidence-based tools and analyses they need to develop, implement, and monitor policies and programs that achieve housing justice for all.

Housekeeping

- This is a hybrid event. We are recording and will share the recording after the event.
- Virtual attendees: live captions are on and adjustable at the bottom of your media player
- Virtual audience can type questions into the Q&A box at any time.
- Engage with us online using #LiveAtUrban.
- Please complete the survey at the end of the event.
- Hold on to your itinerary. It will be your trusty guide these next two days.

HOUSING JUSTICE

at the URBAN INSTITUTE

WHAT is housing justice?

Ensuring everyone has affordable housing that promotes health, well-being, and upward mobility by confronting historical and ongoing harms and disparities caused by structural racism and other systems of oppression.

OUR PRINCIPLES OF HOUSING JUSTICE:

Advancing Housing Justice: An Urban Institute Summit

#LiveAtUrban

CONVENE & ENGAGE

Seek and prioritize solutions shaped by people with lived experience and communities most affected by these challenges.

Create space for different groups to listen, learn, and discuss solutions.

AMPLIFY & BUILD KNOWLEDGE

Draw on Urban's expertise in housing research and policy, racial equity analytics, and cross-sector solutions.

How can we help advance housing justice?

Collect and catalog research and resources related to housing justice.

DEVELOP TOOLS FOR CHANGE

Give policymakers and community stakeholders the evidence-based tools and analyses they need to develop, implement, and monitor policies and programs that achieve housing justice for all.

Housing insecurity is rising as the US faces a severe housing shortage, and as wages haven't kept up with rising costs of living.

URBAN INSTITUTE

Black, Indigenous, and Latinx people are more likely to experience housing insecurity and homelessness because of past and present discriminatory policies and practices in housing, education, employment, and the criminal legal system.

Solutions need to address the historical, systemic, and intersecting factors that have led to housing insecurity.

To remedy these inequities, advocates, policymakers, and researchers are calling for a structural overhaul of the country's housing system to ensure everyone can live in a safe, affordable home.

ANTI-RACISM & RACIAL EQUITY

CHOICE & AGENCY

SELF-DETERMINATION & REPARATIONS

HOUSING AS A HUMAN RIGHT

SOCIAL & ECONOMIC EQUITY & JUSTICE

PRIMACY OF LIVED EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY & WELL-BEING

Day 1

Morning Sessions

Defining Housing Justice

Location: Upstairs in Columbia Heights A

Housing as a Human Right

Location: On this Floor in Brookland

Examining the Implications of Intersectionality Relevant to Housing Justice

Location: Upstairs in Columbia Heights B

HOUSING JUSTICE

at the URBAN INSTITUTE

WHAT is housing justice?

Ensuring everyone has affordable housing that promotes health, well-being, and upward mobility by confronting historical and ongoing harms and disparities caused by structural racism and other systems of oppression.

OUR PRINCIPLES OF HOUSING JUSTICE:

Advancing Housing Justice: An Urban Institute Summit

#LiveAtUrban

CONVENE & ENGAGE

Seek and prioritize solutions shaped by people with lived experience and communities most affected by these challenges.

Create space for different groups to listen, learn, and discuss solutions.

AMPLIFY & BUILD KNOWLEDGE

Draw on Urban's expertise in housing research and policy, racial equity analytics, and cross-sector solutions.

How can we help advance housing justice?

Collect and catalog research and resources related to housing justice.

DEVELOP TOOLS FOR CHANGE

Give policymakers and community stakeholders the evidence-based tools and analyses they need to develop, implement, and monitor policies and programs that achieve housing justice for all.

Housing insecurity is rising as the US faces a severe housing shortage, and as wages haven't kept up with rising costs of living.

URBAN INSTITUTE

Black, Indigenous, and Latinx people are more likely to experience housing insecurity and homelessness because of past and present discriminatory policies and practices in housing, education, employment, and the criminal legal system.

Solutions need to address the historical, systemic, and intersecting factors that have led to housing insecurity.

To remedy these inequities, advocates, policymakers, and researchers are calling for a structural overhaul of the country's housing system to ensure everyone can live in a safe, affordable home.

ANTI-RACISM & RACIAL EQUITY

CHOICE & AGENCY

SELF-DETERMINATION & REPARATIONS

HOUSING AS A HUMAN RIGHT

SOCIAL & ECONOMIC EQUITY & JUSTICE

PRIMACY OF LIVED EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY & WELL-BEING

Day 1

Photovoice Gallery

Housing Justice Close to Home: A Photovoice Project

Location: Just outside this room in the Promenade Level (PR) Lobby

Featured Creators: Housing Justice Community Advisory Board Members

- Jason Brown | The Center in Hollywood
- Derika Denel Gibson | American Descendants of Slavery Advocacy Foundation
- Martel Okonji | DCT Consulting, Community Advisory Board
- Cristian-Alexander Perlera | East Los Angeles College
- Suzette Shaw | Skid Row from a Woman's Perspective
- Terri Tupper | Long Island Connections

HOUSING JUSTICE

at the URBAN INSTITUTE

WHAT is housing justice?

Ensuring everyone has affordable housing that promotes health, well-being, and upward mobility by confronting historical and ongoing harms and disparities caused by structural racism and other systems of oppression.

OUR PRINCIPLES OF HOUSING JUSTICE:

Advancing Housing Justice: An Urban Institute Summit

#LiveAtUrban

CONVENE & ENGAGE

Seek and prioritize solutions shaped by people with lived experience and communities most affected by these challenges.

Create space for different groups to listen, learn, and discuss solutions.

AMPLIFY & BUILD KNOWLEDGE

Draw on Urban's expertise in housing research and policy, racial equity analytics, and cross-sector solutions.

How can we help advance housing justice?

Collect and catalog research and resources related to housing justice.

DEVELOP TOOLS FOR CHANGE

Give policymakers and community stakeholders the evidence-based tools and analyses they need to develop, implement, and monitor policies and programs that achieve housing justice for all.

Housing insecurity is rising as the US faces a severe housing shortage, and as wages haven't kept up with rising costs of living.

URBAN INSTITUTE

Black, Indigenous, and Latinx people are more likely to experience housing insecurity and homelessness because of past and present discriminatory policies and practices in housing, education, employment, and the criminal legal system.

Solutions need to address the historical, systemic, and intersecting factors that have led to housing insecurity.

To remedy these inequities, advocates, policymakers, and researchers are calling for a structural overhaul of the country's housing system to ensure everyone can live in a safe, affordable home.

ANTI-RACISM & RACIAL EQUITY

CHOICE & AGENCY

SELF-DETERMINATION & REPARATIONS

HOUSING AS A HUMAN RIGHT

SOCIAL & ECONOMIC EQUITY & JUSTICE

PRIMACY OF LIVED EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY & WELL-BEING

Day 2

Morning Sessions

Improving Places and Spaces: Housing Justice and the Built Environment

Location: Upstairs in Columbia Heights A

The Role of Philanthropy in Housing Justice

Location: On this Floor in Brookland

Scoring the State of Housing Justice: Evaluation Creation

Location: Upstairs in Columbia Heights B

HOUSING JUSTICE

at the URBAN INSTITUTE

WHAT is housing justice?

Ensuring everyone has affordable housing that promotes health, well-being, and upward mobility by confronting historical and ongoing harms and disparities caused by structural racism and other systems of oppression.

OUR PRINCIPLES OF HOUSING JUSTICE:

Advancing Housing Justice: An Urban Institute Summit

#LiveAtUrban

Housing insecurity is rising as the US faces a severe housing shortage, and as wages haven't kept up with rising costs of living.

CONVENE & ENGAGE

Seek and prioritize solutions shaped by people with lived experience and communities most affected by these challenges.

Create space for different groups to listen, learn, and discuss solutions.

Black, Indigenous, and Latinx people are more likely to experience housing insecurity and homelessness because of past and present discriminatory policies and practices in housing, education, employment, and the criminal legal system.

Solutions need to address the historical, systemic, and intersecting factors that have led to housing insecurity.

To remedy these inequities, advocates, policymakers, and researchers are calling for a structural overhaul of the country's housing system to ensure everyone can live in a safe, affordable home.

PRIVATE PROPERTY
KEEP OUT

ANTI-RACISM & RACIAL EQUITY

CHOICE & AGENCY

SELF-DETERMINATION & REPARATIONS

HOUSING AS A HUMAN RIGHT

SOCIAL & ECONOMIC EQUITY & JUSTICE

PRIMACY OF LIVED EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY & WELL-BEING

How can we help advance housing justice?

AMPLIFY & BUILD KNOWLEDGE

Draw on Urban's expertise in housing research and policy, racial equity analytics, and cross-sector solutions.

Collect and catalog research and resources related to housing justice.

DATA ANALYSIS

DEVELOP TOOLS FOR CHANGE

Give policymakers and community stakeholders the evidence-based tools and analyses they need to develop, implement, and monitor policies and programs that achieve housing justice for all.

Day 2

Continuing the Conversation

We welcome you stick around and keep collaborating
This space will remain open for furthering discussion until 3pm.

- Overall, which topics or ideas showcased in the summit over the last two days do you think have the greatest impact potential for advancing housing justice? Why?
- What opportunities exist to place reparative policies at the forefront of housing justice work? What challenges? Which sectors should take on which roles?
- One theme of the summit was the importance of cross-sector collaboration. Has participating in the summit influenced how you view any of your key partners or sparked new opportunities for collaboration. If so, in what ways?

HOUSING JUSTICE

at the URBAN INSTITUTE

WHAT is housing justice?

Ensuring everyone has affordable housing that promotes health, well-being, and upward mobility by confronting historical and ongoing harms and disparities caused by structural racism and other systems of oppression.

OUR PRINCIPLES OF HOUSING JUSTICE:

Advancing Housing Justice: An Urban Institute Summit

#LiveAtUrban

CONVENE & ENGAGE

Seek and prioritize solutions shaped by people with lived experience and communities most affected by these challenges.

Create space for different groups to listen, learn, and discuss solutions.

AMPLIFY & BUILD KNOWLEDGE

Draw on Urban's expertise in housing research and policy, racial equity analytics, and cross-sector solutions.

How can we help advance housing justice?

Collect and catalog research and resources related to housing justice.

DEVELOP TOOLS FOR CHANGE

Give policymakers and community stakeholders the evidence-based tools and analyses they need to develop, implement, and monitor policies and programs that achieve housing justice for all.

Housing insecurity is rising as the US faces a severe housing shortage, and as wages haven't kept up with rising costs of living.

URBAN INSTITUTE

Black, Indigenous, and Latinx people are more likely to experience housing insecurity and homelessness because of past and present discriminatory policies and practices in housing, education, employment, and the criminal legal system.

Solutions need to address the historical, systemic, and intersecting factors that have led to housing insecurity.

To remedy these inequities, advocates, policymakers, and researchers are calling for a structural overhaul of the country's housing system to ensure everyone can live in a safe, affordable home.

PRIVATE PROPERTY KEEP OUT

ANTI-RACISM & RACIAL EQUITY

CHOICE & AGENCY

SELF-DETERMINATION & REPARATIONS

HOUSING AS A HUMAN RIGHT

SOCIAL & ECONOMIC EQUITY & JUSTICE

PRIMACY OF LIVED EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY & WELL-BEING